Dynamic Fifth-day Market in Downtown

Moran Fifth-day Market

Sight 2 C6

The name of Moran was originated from the cultivation of the wasteland in the Seongnam area in 1960s, where the history of Moran Fifth-day Market began. The Market is opened every 5 days starting on the 4th of each month and offers the public to have an opportunity to enjoy unusual experiences in downtown.

Daegwangmyeongjeon Hall of Bongguksa Temple

Sight 4 B6

Bongguksa Temple (Yeonggi-do Tangible Cultural Heritage No. 101) was rebuilt in 1674 (the 15th year of the reign of King Hyeonjong) to pray for the repose of two princesses of Myeonghye and Myeongseon, who died in their early ages, near their tomb. Daegwangmyeongjeon Hall of Bongguksa Temple was originally a shrine to serve Vairocana Buddha, but now the shrine serves Amitabha Buddha. The Buddhist temple from the latter period of the Joseon Dynasty has been preserved well.

Attraction of enjoying History and Nature together

Jungang Park

Jungang Park located in the city center is the representative green space harmonized with a forest and lake. Lawn Square, Evergreen Square, Yeokmal Square, and Hwangsaek Square in the park offers a variety of experiences and comfort, while an Outdoor Theater provides diverse cultural events and performances. In addition, the local cultural heritages including Gindol Garden and Sunaedong House have been restored in the park so that citizens can appreciate the rural atmosphere and the traditional culture in the heart of the city. Particularly, its natural scenery is popular for the shooting location of films and TV programs. The park also boasts its top-class landscaping facility in Korea, which was benchmarked in Japan and Taiwan.
